

Phoenix Branch AAUW 2007-2008 Programs

Month	Program
September 18, 2007	Dr. Souad T. Ali, Assistant Professor of Arabic and Middle Eastern Studies, will speak on "Women in the Muslim World"
October 16, 2007	Lisa Love, ASU Sports Director, will speak on Title IX past and present as well as how she achieved her unusual- for- a -woman position as Sports Director.
November 20, 2007	Rebecca Friend, head of the Arizona State AFL-CIO. Another woman who broke the glass ceiling. Learn about unions.
December 11, 2007	'Public Art in Phoenix' by Brenda Sperduti, Executive Director of Arizona Citizens for The Arts, an Arts Advocacy Association. Slides and explanation of Art you may not have seen.
January 15, 2008	Ann Kobnitz, ASU Professor Women's studies, and Arizona Humanities Council speaker," Shady Women and "Respectability" in Territorial Arizona."
February 19, 2008	"Evolution and Future of Marriage" Tom and Jeanne Belise Lombardo.
March 18, 2008	Profiles of Women Past &amp; Present presented by our Phoenix branch members. Judith Harges, Dorothy Wirtz, and others will present women's biographies.
April 15, 2008	Elizabeth Larson Keagy, ASU Professor, and Arizona Humanities Council Speaker, will speak on "Afghanistan: Cultural and Physical Geography including what they have endured in the last twenty years."
May 20, 2008	Legislative Wrap up with a Republican and a Democrat from the Arizona Legislature

All meetings will be held at Hometown Buffet, 1501 W. Bethany Home, Phoenix, AZ 5:30 pm in enclosed room. $12 per person for dinner paid to our treasurer. Meetings are on the third Tuesday of each month except December.